MIT COURSE ON TAX COMPLIANCE 2023-2024

The MIT Course on Tax Compliance offers an overview of fundamental principles of income tax, stamp duty and VAT and their application in practice, relevant for tax advisors, accounts clerks and finance teams. The course is designed to provide a comprehensive introduction to the fundamentals of taxation required by all individuals who work in the field of tax, and addresses the principles as well as the practical issues (including documentary and filing obligations).

The MIT Course on Taxation is accredited by the Malta Further & Higher Education Authority. The Malta Institute of Taxation is licensed as a Higher Education Institution, having license number 2015-014.

3 Modules: The course is split into 3 modules (a total of 31 lectures):

- A. Personal Tax: this module covers the technical considerations of personal tax (1 ECTS);
- B. Corporate Tax: this module addresses the basic issues which tax practitioners encounter in their corporate tax compliance work. Module B concentrates on income tax theory and on the practical side of the tax. (6 ECTS);
- C. Capital Gains and Duty: covers an introduction to the capital gains and duty, including various exemptions, relief mechanisms and computing the taxable base. It also delves into the filing requirements relative to transfers of securities. (2 ECTS);

Along the course, 5 Practical Sessions are delivered: these lectures focus on personal tax, Corporate Tax Returns and fiscal consolidation and completing capital gains and duty schedules with practical examples.

Assessment: An assignment to be completed at the end of each Module (optional) and a Home Test (optional). Attendance is also taken into account for final grading purposes.

Duration: 24 lectures, from December 2023 to June 2024.

Option: Applicants may opt to follow the full course or any one or more modules.
